Report of Schools and School Board.

Our schools this year have had a variety of teachers, too many for the good of the schools, we think. In most cases this has been unavoidable and we trust the coming year, if the teachers prove themselves worthy, we can keep them. At the present time a teacher with ambition, one who is trying to be successful, who exerts herself to be thoroughly familiar with up to date methods, is not willing to use her energy for small pay. It is in this, we must keep abreast with other towns.

This year we have had more money and a longer school year, twenty-eight weeks, and the children have profited by it. Let us not cut our school money short but with cheerfulness raise more for the education and improvement of our children. We wish to say a word about school discipline.

No teacher can be truly successful who is not a good disciplinarian.

The school that is not governed is fitting the child to be a citizen who does not care for law.

Let us as parents see we do not find fault with firm disciplinarians in our schools, and unless cruelty abounds, let us be thankful our children are made to mind.

The spring term in the Grammar grade was taught by Miss Madge Pease of Ashland, a good teacher in every respect. The fall term was under Miss Henrietta Wilder's instruction, a teacher of unusual ability and we trust we may be successful in having her again.
